OVERVIEW

Since our inception in 2000, Global Association of Billionaires and Millionaires (GABM) has grown to more than 300 000 associate members globally, passionate and dedicated to contribute vast resources to the alleviation of global poverty as responsible corporate citizens.

GABM's substantial growth and success to date has been, and will continue to be, the result of a driven, highly disciplined and dedicated Board of Executives who is relentless in their efforts to create a better global economy for all mankind.

If your objective is to come to work every day confidently knowing that you will be able to provide solutions to the various challenges we face, and achieving our ambitious budget requirements, then GABM is most certainly the place for you.

GABM offers talented, and result driven executives extraordinary opportunities, as sustaining the success of GABM depends upon continually adding exceptionally skilled, intelligent and dynamic professionals to our team.

Our people are the key to GABM's success, which is why we seek to recruit and retain the most talented individuals, while our entrepreneurial culture similarly makes us a unique place to develop professionally.

We know the magnitude of making a career change and therefore we strive to provide you with every opportunity to become well-integrated into our fold, and to continue to develop professionally, and to thrive in a vibrant corporate environment

As we look to build our executive team and strengthen our corporate capabilities, we evaluate candidates based on a combination of intellectual rigor, their personal success record and personal dynamics.

GABM looks for applicants with strong academic credentials and experience who also share our dedication to philanthropy, teamwork, and adherence to the highest ethical, professional, and corporate governance standards.
